

Today is very boring

Today is very boring,
It's a very boring day,
There is nothing much to look at,
There is nothing much to say.
There's a dragon burning town,
There's vines winding up my bed,
There's an itch on my mosquito,
There's not much to be said.

Today is very boring,
It is boring through and through,
There is absolutely nothing,
That I think I want to do.
My teacher is a zebra,
A swan is riding on my bike,
There's a pony on my boat,
I think I'll go on strike!

Today is very boring,
I can hardly help but yawn,
There's a flying saucer landing,
In the middle of our lawn.
I've been shot up into space,
My Mum has lost her mind,
There's a Martian on the toilet,
Today's the boring kind!
